Dear Mr. Weisberg:

After checking carefully with others here, I can only say there is not sufficient confidence or interest in your book, THE REPORT ON THE WARREN REPORT. Obviously, it would be a mistake to attempt publication in view of the general lack of enthusiasm.

Personally, I think the book could have a very big sale in this country if properly presented. In Europe, where everyone believes there was a conspiracy, there is every reason to expect the book would be a big bestseller.

Please let me know what you would like to have me do with the manuscript. There must be a logical market for it here in New York.

Sincerely,

Howard Cady
